VIRGINIA WINS AGAIN. University Team Shuts Out A. & M. College of North Carolina.

M. College of North Carolina.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 25.—

The Agricultural and Mechanical College of North Carolina was shut out by Virginia to-day, the score being 12 to 6.

The visitors had in the box the twirler
who shut out the University of North Carolina on Saturday, McCathran. The young southpaw was far from being in form. In the fourth inning he became very unsteady, and before the side was retired Virginia had clinched the game
by sending eight men across the plate.
Captain Graham was safe on the short-stop's error. Dalton was passed to first and Maddux bunted, filling the bases. Graham counted on a passed ball and Graham counted on a passed ball and Dalton scored on Farmers' failure to handle Hoff's grounder. Johnson then scoaked one across the running track in left field, sending in Maddux and Hoff. Graham singled, scoring Moses and Lawler. Dalton then sent a hot liner to left field, and both Walker and Graham commed home.

Virginia added two runs in the cannot Hoff went around to third on Farmer's wild throw to catch him at first, and counted on Woodson's long fly to center. Johnson scored on a passed ball. In the ninth Graham welked, stole second and went home on Maddux's out. Hoff's neat sacrific scored Dalton.

Moses was a puzzle to the visitors, allowing but two hits, both in the second inning. Cax beat out an easy one down the third base line, and Farmer dropped a fly in short right field. Maddux, Lawler and Johnson carried off the fielding honors for Virginia. Score:

Awards of Judges Met With the General Approbation of the People.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ASHEVILLE, N. C., April 25 .- Surpass

ing the occasion of Tuesday, in point of weather, almost perfect, and with an attendance of over 3,000, which crowded all the accommodation at the ringside at Riverside Park, the second and last day of Asheville's yearly Horse Show to-day closed the fourth annual event.

The animated scenes and the bright colors of the day before were reproduced, and the programme scemed to have more and the programme seemed of average interest to the speciators, who came early and remained until the end. All available space was occupied, and people stood two deep around the railing of the oval in which the show took place. The awards of the judges met popular approbation, and put the assembly in a good hamor.

The classes in which most interest centered to-day were those of the combination saddle and harness horses, the pair roadsters, the gaited saddle horses, the single roadster and the ladles' saddle horse, as shown by the cheers which followed the awards of the judges. Mrs. Beekman Lorillard won the President's cup, the Minor cup and two blue ribbons in the two classes in which her "Rex" was entered. The award in the pair roadster class and the single roadster class for the blue was to Dr. C. V. Reynolds's sorrel geldings, "Gold Dust" and "Gold Bar" was also much to the popular fancy.

PRIMARY FIGHT

primary is not unlike those usually in vogue. The polls will open promptly at 6 this morning and will be kept open at all the precincts until 8 o'clock to-night The returns will be received at Sanger Hall and will doubtless come in early. The count will in all probability be completed by midnight.

Here is the provision of the plan as to who may vote:

to who may vote:

All registered white Democratic voters of the city of Richmond, who are qualified according to law and who will pledge themselves, as hereinafter provided, to support the nominiees of the Democratic praty, shall be entitled to vote at the said primary election. But no voter shall be entitled to vote except in the precinct in which he lives, and unless his name appears on the registration book. Any white male who may not be twenty-one years of age at the time of said primary, but who will attain that age on or before the general election to be held June 12, 1996, shall, upon producing to the judge of election satisfactory evidence of that fact, be allowed to vote at said primary.

Much Quiet Interest.

There is a great deal of quiet interest in the result of the primary, and it is of both a local and general nature. Democrats in the several words are displaying the usual interest in the success of their respective favorites, while many citizens are earnestly desirous that the city at large shall have a strong council.
